DAYTON, Ohio (U) — A supermarket holdup at suburban Kettering yesterday netted three men an estimated $30,000.

The three fled in a car after donning nylon hose masks and cleaning out five of eight checkout registers and a service booth at the Liberal Market.

A store clerk said he became suspicious of one of the three wandering around unmasked and followed him to the front of the crowded store, there, the clerk said, the bandit and two others pulled on masks and drew guns.

The loss estimate was made by store officials.

Coast Oil Firms Won't Shut Down

Governor Asked Move To Find Smog Cause

LOS ANGELES (U) — Southern California's oil industry, invited by Gov. Goodwin J. Knight to shut down operations temporarily for a smog test, has declined—with some comment unrefined.

"The solution to the smog problem is not to be found in politics," snapped Reese H. Taylor, Union Oil President. Knight and Democrat Richard Grayes are locked in the current campaign for governor and smog has suddenly erupted into the hottest issue.

Four other major companies and an independent group followed Union's lead and took dissenting stands. The governor awaited word from other operators of the area's 25 refineries without great optimism.

General Petroleum called Knight's proposal "unsound" and meaningless. Richfield said the move "would neither prove nor disprove" how the irritating pollutants get into the air on which Angelenos have been gagging for 17 straight days.

Standard Oil of California and Shell were more reserved in their comments, but like the other companies insisted the industry has done all in its power to curb smoke pollutants at their refineries. Shell alone offered to meet with the governor to discuss the proposal.

The Independent Refiners Assn., attacked the request as "completely impractical from the industry standpoint" and urged Knight "to eliminate political considerations" from his views.

Knight dropped the bombshell plan in the companies' laps yesterday. He asked for a voluntary closing of refineries "in the public interest for such a period as will permit an adequate test of the amount of smog coming from the manufacture of gasoline and other petroleum products in this county."

TRUCKERS PERMIT REVOKED

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U)—The state utilities commission has revoked the common carrier permit of Ohio Transport, Inc., of Cleveland—an action Commissioner Ray Martin says will put the company out of business if upheld by the courts. Martin was the only one of the three commissioners voting against revocation of the permit. The company was charged with repeatedly violating truck overloading regulations.

STUDY PIKE SPEEDS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U)—Maximum speed for trucks using the Northern Ohio Turnpike should be 55 m.p.h., the Ohio Trucking Assn. said yesterday. Association President Clarence E. Williams said a proposed 70 m.p.h. speed limit for trucks "is too high a speed for safe truck travel." Turnpike Commission Chairman James W. Shocknessy recently suggested a 50.55 m.p.h. limit for trucks. Commission executive director Robert Beightler earlier suggested the 70 m.p.h. limit.

Democrat Tells Party's Planks

Johnson Says Ike To Get Full Support

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—Senate minority leader Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) disclosed here a seven-planked program for the next congress, which he confidently claimed would be Democratic controlled.

Johnson, predicting a five-seat Senate margin and wider in the House, listed first in his program for the 84th Congress a pledge of complete co-operation with President Eisenhower on a united foreign policy.

It will be, he told a press conference yesterday, a foreign policy "with a single voice for all America—the President's."

Johnson, who flew last night to Minnesota, said the 17 Democratic Senate committee chairmen would be a "Cabinet" to organize and carry through the program's objectives. Fourteen of these chairmen, he said, will be from the South and West. Democratic victory will be declared, will be a revolt against the industrial East.

A "most thorough ventilation of the 'Nixon-Dixon-Yates' deal" will be made, he said, under direction of Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM), who would head the Atomic Energy Committee in a Democratic Congress. Nixon's name, as a symbol, joins Dixon-Yates because of his defense of the TVA-atomic power contract, Johnson said.

The five other program objectives, on which Johnson proposed the Democrats should get a running start in the special McCarthy session starting Nov. 8, were:

Launching of a "gigantic development program of our natural resources including huge reclamation and conservation projects in the West" to provide water for expansion of Western industry and population.

Full support for President Eisenhower and the Joint Chiefs of Staff to provide an adequate defense against all would-be aggressors.

Revised Farm Program. A revised and improved farm program insuring the farmer and rancher a greater share in the total national income.

Modification and improvement of labor standards giving "both employee and employer the dignity to which they are entitled."

Permit the "fullest utilization of all the great facilities of free and private enterprise without permitting a payoff to a shirt tail full of campaign contributors."

260 Haitians Feared Buried By Landslide

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—An estimated 260 persons were reported buried in a tremendous landslide that thundered down Tuesday on the remote mountain village of Berly, 20 miles south of here.

Capt. P. Burchett, head of the Inter-American Geodetic Survey, brought back word of the disaster yesterday after landing at the site of the buried village in a helicopter.

He said the estimate of fatalities was based on reports by local police. They said the only survivors were a child who fled ahead of the rumbling earth slide and a woman visiting out of town.

A Red Cross party which hiked to the scene said only six houses still stood on Berly's outskirts. The rescue party had to travel 35 hours through fog - enshrouded, trackless mountains to reach the village.

The landslide presumably resulted from floods in the wake of Hurricane Hazel. The fierce storm lashed Haiti last week before cutting a swath through the Eastern United States and Canada.

Incomplete figures early this week indicated the hurricane took at least 74 lives in the island. One report, unconfirmed by any official sources, said 200 children were lost at Peredo, near the southern port of Marigot, when a school house was swept away.

Skouras, Movie Magnate, Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The death of Charles P. Skouras, the Greek immigrant boy who made almost a million dollars a year 40 years after his arrival, saddened the movie colony today.

The 65-year-old president of National Theaters, Inc., and Fox West Coast Theaters died yesterday of a heart attack, his third in recent years. Plans are being completed for funeral services in St. Sophia Greek Orthodox Cathedral, which he and his brothers were largely responsible for building.

Skouras' many philanthropies made him more than just a Hollywood name. The multimillionaire's gifts were recognized by civic awards from Los Angeles, California, and his native Greece.

Skouras landed penniless in New York in 1908 and went to work as a 50-cents-a-day busboy. In 1947 and 1948 he ranked as the nation's highest paid executive.

Artist Of 'Jiggs' Comic Strip Dies

McManus's Cartoons Seen In 27 Languages

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Comic strip artist George McManus, whose "Bringing Up Father" became an international favorite and was published in 27 languages, is dead at the age of 70.

In failing health several years, he was admitted to St. John's Hospital last Thursday, suffering from hepatitis, an infection of the liver. He succumbed last night.

McManus started his career as a floor sweeper in the art department of the old St. Louis Republic. Eventually he did some drawing for that paper but one day in 1904 he took a bootblack's tip on a horse and invested $100 on a 100-to-1 shot that won. With his winnings he set out for New York and fame.

There were times in New York when he thought he'd never make it, and as he once said: "I was almost starved, but when I was going down for the third time the old New York World signed me and I created the comic strips 'The Newlyweds' and 'Let George Do It.'"

McManus signed on with the old New York American in 1912, worked over 40 ideas for a new one that put him over—"Jiggs," of the corned beef and cabbage crowd.

"Bringing Up Father," with its boisterous and battling characters and the dogged "Maggie," the wife of Jiggs, with her rampant rolling pin, caught on immediately in New York and then throughout the country as it was syndicated. The show of the same name toured the country 11 years and radio and television shows were based on it. A series of movies of it was produced.

the White House. He politicked in Connecticut and New York City on Wednesday and Thursday. He returned only one week ago from an eight weeks work-and-play vacation in Denver.

On the way to his farm, Eisenhower planned to stop off at the Pennsylvania monument on the Gettysburg Civil War battlefield and speak briefly to townfolks. This was a late addition to his schedule.

The guest list for the luncheon included Sen. James Duff and Gov. John Fine, whose camps reportedly have been cool to each other within the GOP; Sen. Ed Martin, National Committeeman G. Mason Owlett, National Committeewoman Mrs. D. Ray Murdock, GOP State Chairman Miles Horst. And all 30 Republican candidates for House seats.

Neither Martin, Duff nor Fine are candidates at this point. The senators' terms do not expire this year. Republican Lt. Gov. Lloyd H. Wood is running against Democratic State Sen. George M. Leader for governor.

Sheppard

to pick a tentative jury the 30-year-old defendant sat in the courtroom with few outward signs of emotion. He had warm smiles for his father and two brothers, who also are osteopaths.

Eyed Newsmen

Most of the time he sat quietly watching his lawyers and the three assistant prosecutors while they quizzed prospective jurors. Occasionally his eyes drifted to the 50 odd newsmen, who took up most of the spectators seats in the small courtroom. His expression seemed reproachful then.

His slender fingers usually were locked and held under his chin or out a few inches from his face. Sometimes he would close his eyes and squeeze tightly with his clasped hands in what appeared to be moments of mental stress.

Indicted on a first degree murder charge last Aug. 17, Dr. Sheppard has maintained steadfastly that his 31-year-old wife was killed by a bushy-haired intruder who knocked him out when he tried to aid her.

His wife, Marilyn, mother of his six-year-old son, was four months pregnant when her bloody body was found in their suburban Bay Village home on the shore of Lake Erie.

The defense has said it will show in the trial that Sheppard is an innocent victim caught in a web of circumstances.

Questioned His Story Assistant Prosecutor John J. Mahon has questioned Dr. Sheppard's story, asking why the alleged intruder neither killed the osteopath nor took anything of value from the house. The murder weapon never has been found.

From the start of the trial, it has been apparent that the defense lawyers expect Miss Hayes to be a big factor in the state's case.

The first day, Atty. Garmone asked a prospective juror:

"Suppose the state brought testimony that Dr. Sheppard had affairs with other women. Would that be sufficient to prove the elements of first degree murder?"

The next day, Garmone introduced the auburn haired hospital technician's name into the proceedings by asking a panel member, "have you ever heard of or do you know a young lady whose name is Susan Hayes?"

And Wednesday, Atty. Corrigan, arguing for the privilege of questioning jurors as to their views on extramarital sex activities, roared in response to a prosecution objection:

To Bring Girl To Court "I know they're going to bring Susan Hayes into this courtroom."

Absent from the court proceedings was the osteopath's 65-year-old mother, Mrs. Richard A. Sheppard, who is suffering from a heart condition.

Mrs. Sheppard, who said she did not follow newspaper or television accounts of the trial, told a reporter that "if I thought there were anything I could do to help, I would do it," and she added: "I feel I can do more by keeping my strength here at home."

Two persons who had been close to the osteopath's murdered wife gave reporters a verbal picture of the young woman's earlier life that portrayed her as somewhat introverted, tense but neat, and fond of games and dancing.

Dr. Keith E. Weigle Jr., a cousin who said he grew up near Marilyn Sheppard, recalled she lost her mother while still a child and consequently became "somewhat introverted" despite her popularity. He said, "she seemed to feel she had nobody to confide in."

Mrs. Clarice Weeks, who went to high school with her, said she "was a perfect lady, but not prudish," and she liked football games, movies, and especially dancing.

Her favorite tunes in high school, Mrs. Weeks said, were "Music Maestro, Please" and "Begin The Beguine," while her favorite orchestra was Glenn Miller's.

Germany

Each had two top advisers with him.

Both sides agreed considerable progress had been made but some tough points remained to be settled.

It was considered an encouraging sign that progress was reported on political questions, which had been considered most difficult. Authoritative sources said the still undecided matters were largely economic, and it was a need for technical information that finally halted the morning conference.

The French Premier intended to call his Cabinet together as soon as he had results of the Saar talks to put before it. The Cabinet had authorized his announcement yesterday that he would sign none of the agreements unless he also came to satisfactory terms with Germany over the Saar.

The other agreements included: 1. A four-power accord—by Britain, France, the United States and West Germany—making West Germany a nearly free ally after 10 years of occupation.

2. A revised Brussels treaty under which Germany and Italy would be joined in a military pact with England, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. The alliance, called the Western European Union, would permit Germany to begin arming 12 divisions to help defend the West against Communist aggression.

3. An invitation to West Germany to join the North Atlantic Treaty Organization on the same basis as its 13 other members.

The Saar's wealth of coal and steel and the loyalties of its 900,000 German-speaking people have complicated French-German relations since World War II. The French have taken over the valley's industry, but the Bonn republic is still fighting hard to keep old ties with the Saarlanders. The area, now autonomous politically, was German before World War II.

Woman Faces Forgery Trial Next Monday

LISBON — Miss Josephine McDole, 32, of Midland, Pa., will be tried on a forgery charge in common pleas court Monday, as criminal trials enter their second week.

Indicted by the September grand jury, Miss McDole has pleaded not guilty to a charge of forging the name of R. V. Downer of East Liverpool on an unemployment compensation check for $30.50 Dec. 1.

She and her companion, Herman Donahue, 29, of Hammondsville also are accused of two counts of burglary. The pair are charged with burglarizing Allison's dress shop in East Liverpool Feb. 20 and McAllister Farm Market in Wellsville April 1. They have pleaded guilty to both charges.
